5. Please describe each alleged discriminatory act. For each action, please include the date(s) the discriminatory act occurred, the name(s) of each person(s) involved and, why you believe the discrimination was because of race, disability, age, sex, etc. Also please provide the names of any person(s) who was present and witnessed the act(s) of discrimination.

BYU-I withdrew its policy banning same-sex romantic behavior in February 2020, but reinstated it a few weeks later, when a commissioner from the LDS church sent out a letter stating that same-sex romantic behavior is "not compatible with the principles included in the honor code." Chandler could not express his sexual orientation and lived in fear of being expelled and removed from his university housing based on BYU-I's anti-LGBT policies. A faculty member held a "therapy" group for LGBT students trying to come to peace with marrying someone of the opposite sex. Please see attached declaration.

6. What is the most recent date you were discriminated against?

Date: Current, Ongoing

7. If this date is more than 180 days ago, you may request a waiver of the filing requirement.

I am requesting a waiver of the 180-day time frame for filing this complaint.

Please explain why you waited until now to file your complaint.

1) the Covid-19 pandemic;
2) The Trump administration's policies and statements about religious exemptions to Title IX;
3) The Trump administration's policies and statements about Title IX not prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity.
4) Although the initial act of discrimination took place more than 180 days ago, Chandler's complaint should not be considered time-barred because BYU-I continues to discriminate against Chandler and to promulgate policies and practices that discriminate against LGBTQ+ students.

8. Have you attempted to resolve these allegations with the institution through an internal grievance procedure, appeal or due process hearing?

No

Not applicable

11. What would you like the institution to do as a result of your complaint — what remedy are you seeking?

Chandler would like BYU-I's policies amended to state that (1) same-sex dating relationships and displays of affection will be treated by BYU-I in the same manner as opposite-sex dating relationships and displays of affection; (2) students will not be punished for coming out as LGBTQ+ or for expressing their sexual or gender identity (through pronouns, clothing, hair, makeup, etc.); (3) BYU-I will not encourage or facilitate conversion therapy or any other sexual or gender orientation change efforts; (4) students who report sexual or physical assault will be granted safe harbor from discipline relating to sexual activity or other code of conduct violations; and (5) BYU-I's non-discrimination policy includes sexual orientation and gender identity as applied to all aspects of Brigham Young, including housing and other programs.

Re: Brigham Young University – Idaho
OCR Reference No. 10212151

Dear Ms. Swain

The U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights (OCR) has completed its evaluation of your discrimination complaint against Brigham Young University – Idaho, which was received on July 27, 2021. In your complaint, you alleged that the University discriminated against Chandler Horning and currently discriminates against students based on sexual orientation.

OCR enforces Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX), 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681-1688, and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 106, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in any education program or activity operated by a recipient of Federal financial assistance. As a recipient of Federal financial assistance from the Department, the University is subject to Title IX. Title IX and its implementing regulation contain several exemptions and exceptions from its coverage. See 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681(a)(1)-(9); 34 C.F.R. §§ 106.11-106.15.

By letter to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights dated March 14, 2022, the University requested an assurance of exemption from any Title IX requirements related to sexual orientation or gender identity, which conflict with the religious tenets of the religious organization that controls the University, as applied to individuals' behavior and conduct. By letter dated May 9, 2022, the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights assured the University of its exemption from the following regulatory provisions to the extent that application of those provisions would conflict with the religious tenets of the University's controlling religious organization that pertain to sexual orientation and gender identity:

- 34 C.F.R. § 106.31 (education programs or activities)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.32 (housing)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.33 (comparable facilities)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.34 (access to classes and schools)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.36 (counseling)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.37 (financial assistance)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.38 (employment assistance to students)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.39 (health and insurance benefits and services)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.40 (marital or parental status)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.41 (athletics)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.43 (standards for measuring skill or progress in physical education classes)
- 34 C.F.R. § 106.51-61 (relating to employment)

Because the University is exempt from the above-referenced regulatory provisions of Title IX to the extent that application of those provisions conflict with the religious tenets of its controlling religious organization, OCR lacks jurisdiction to address the complaint allegations. Accordingly, OCR is dismissing this complaint pursuant to Section 108(f) of its Case Processing Manual as of the date of this letter.

This letter sets forth OCR's determination in an individual OCR case. This letter is not a formal statement of OCR policy and should not be relied upon, cited, or construed as such. OCR's formal policy statements are approved by a duly authorized OCR official and made available to the public. This letter serves as OCR's final agency determination, and there is no right to appeal.

It is also important for you to understand that the laws OCR enforces prohibit the University from harassing, coercing, intimidating, discriminating, or otherwise retaliating against you because you filed a complaint or participated in the complaint resolution process. If this happens, you may file another complaint with OCR.

Under the Freedom of Information Act, it may be necessary to release this document and related correspondence and records upon request. In the event that OCR receives such a request, we will seek to protect, to the extent provided by law, personally identifiable information which, if released, could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Craig Peters, OCR Attorney, by telephone at (206) 607-1646, or by email at Craig.Peters@ed.gov.

Sincerely,

Tania Lopez
